GEORGE H.
McCASKEY
CHAIRMAN

George Halas McCaskey became the fourth Chairman in Chicago Bears team history on May 5, 2011, following in the footsteps of grandfather, George Halas, father, Edward W. McCaskey and brother, Michael.

George is one of the 13 grandchildren – and namesake – of George Halas, the founder and patriarch of the Chicago Bears. Like his brothers and sisters, he grew up around the Bears. His first part-time job, at age 14, was as an office assistant at the team's headquarters in Chicago's Loop. He later worked for several summers as a ball boy at Bears training camp, calling it one of the best experiences of his life.

George will work to carry on the storied tradition of the Bears with a yearly goal of winning the NFL Championship, uphold the integrity and values established in the previous 92 years of the club and oversee the franchise's leadership role in the Chicagoland community.

He previously served as the team's Senior Director of Ticket Operations, working in the ticket office for 20 seasons, joining the Bears in 1991 as Ticket Manager. He has been a member of the Bears' Board of Directors since 2004. In 2010 he also held the duties of Vice Chairman of the team.

George attended Arizona State University, where he earned his bachelor's degree in Broadcasting in 1978 and his law degree in 1981. He passed the Illinois bar exam in 1981, but now describes himself as a "recovering lawyer." He worked in television news in Phoenix, Peoria, Tulsa and Chicago, before serving as an Assistant State's Attorney in Lee County and DeKalb County, Illinois.

In his spare time, George enjoys officiating youth sports, including baseball, soccer and basketball.

McCaskey and his wife Barb have one child, a son, Conor.

TED PHILLIPS
PRESIDENT & CEO

Ted Phillips was named the President and Chief Executive Officer on February 10, 1999. He is the fourth person to serve as president in the organization's storied 92-year history following Michael McCaskey, George "Mugs" Halas, Jr. and George S. Halas. Since taking on the top leadership role, Phillips has insisted on attention to detail and smooth execution at every level of the Bears' operation. He has solidified the long-term stability of the Club, while staying keenly focused on bringing a 10th championship to the NFL's premier franchise.

Phillips has the Bears back among the NFL's elite through his focus on continuity at the top management levels. Part of his plan in revitalizing both the business and football operations has been to hire high character, intelligent and driven individuals who share common goals and philosophies on how to build a consistent winner.

Drawing from 29 years of experience with the Chicago Bears, Phillips has shown effective leadership skills by empowering his executive staff to create an environment of collective responsibility in running the day-to-day operations of the Club. Phillips is involved in all critical decisions of the Bears and continues to strive to make all aspects of the Bears organization the best in the NFL. Always insisting on a team first attitude, Phillips has surrounded himself with individuals who fit the organization's character, culture and values. The team dynamic was crucial in the Bears return to the Super Bowl for the first time in 21 years following the 2006 campaign. Phillips' other highlights include creating and continuing a strong customer service mentality throughout the organization, returning the Bears training camp to Illinois and presiding over four division championships (2001, 2005, 2006 and 2010) after a decade-long drought.

During the 2012 off-season, Phillips hired Phil Emery as the fifth general manager in franchise history, giving new direction to the Bears football operations. He also restructured the front office, promoting five key individuals to the level of Vice President with direct reporting to Phillips. Additional departmental emphasis was also placed on expanding various customer service initiatives along with placing a new emphasis on database management, marketing research and digital media efforts, in an effort to deliver added value to Bears fans, season ticketholders and business partners.

The Bears training camp returned to the state of Illinois in 2002, turning out in record numbers over the three-week training period on the campus of Olivet Nazarene University in Bourbonnais, IL. The 2012 camp marks the 11th year the important touchpoint for Bears fans has been in Illinois.

Phillips' leadership was also key in negotiating a new home for the team at Soldier Field. Not only making the club more financially competitive, it provides the best fans in professional sports, the 4th Phase, with a stadium complete with all the amenities they deserve. The Soldier Field game-day experience is second to none, and the 4th Phase has been critical in creating a great home-field advantage for the team as the Bears continue to maintain their proud history and tradition on Chicago's magnificent lakefront.

Among many local and national awards, the Soldier Field project was selected by the New York Times as one of the nation's best architectural buildings in 2003, and Midwest Construction selected Soldier Field as "Overall Project of the Year."

Phillips served as the Bears' Vice President of Operations for six seasons starting in 1993. Recognized for his many years of handling the Bears' contract negotiations and team finances, Phillips currently serves on the NFL's CEC Working Club Executive Committee whose mission is to analyze the economic, legal and operational aspects of both the salary cap system and the recently finalized 10 year Collective Bargaining Agreement between the NFL and the NFL Players Association. Phillips also serves as a member of the NFL Employee Benefits committee, and he was recently named a Trustee of the NFL Player Benefits Committee. Phillips also serves on the Board of Directors of the Chicagoland Chamber of Commerce.

Before becoming Vice President of Operations, Phillips served as the Director of Finance from 1987 to 1993, handling all player contract negotiations and overseeing the club's business operations. Phillips joined the Bears staff on September 28, 1983, as the team's Controller, a position he held for four years.

Prior to joining the Bears, Phillips was employed as an auditor and tax accountant with the international accounting firm Ernst & Whinney (now Ernst & Young), from 1979-83. He graduated from the University of Notre Dame in 1979 with a degree in business and accounting. Phillips earned a master of marketing and management degree from the Kellogg Graduate School at Northwestern University in 1989.

Phillips was born in Oneida, N.Y., grew up in Nashua, N.H., and he currently resides in Libertyville, IL. He has three sons, Matthew, Max and Frank.

PHIL EMERY
GENERAL MANAGER

Phil Emery brings leadership, a passion for winning, hard work, attention to detail and an acute eye for evaluating talent through over 30 years of football experience into his new position as Chicago Bears General Manager.

An intricate part of the Bears (1998-2004), Atlanta Falcons (2004-08) and Kansas City Chiefs (2009-11) organizations over the last 14 seasons within their college scouting departments, Emery has helped develop a successful foundation at each franchise, learning to balance team needs with a "raise our own" mantra emphasizing building through the draft while working all avenues of player acquisition.

In his first season overseeing Chicago's roster, Emery used multiple channels at his disposal to obtain new talent while keeping the veteran core of the Bears in place. Emery acquired three-time Pro Bowl wide receiver Brandon Marshall via trade and signed unrestricted free agents RB Michael Bush, QB Jason Campbell, LB Blake Costanzo, CB Kelvin Hayden, LB Geno Hayes, G Chilo Rachal, WR Devin Thomas, WR/KR Eric Weems and CB Jonathan Wilhite. He also continued the Bears philosophy of "rewarding their own" by extending the contract of seven-time Pro Bowler Lance Briggs while resigning RB Kahlil Bell, TE Kellen Davis, DL Israel Idonije, QB Josh McCown and S Craig Steltz.

In his first draft, Emery selected players with the speed and skill sets to fit all three phases of the team, drafting DE Shea McClellin (1st round), WR Alshon Jeffery (2nd round), S Brandon Hardin (3rd round), TE Evan Rodriguez (4th round), CB Isaiah Frey (6th round) and CB/KR Greg McCoy (7th round).

In his previous post, Emery was named director of college scouting for the Kansas City Chiefs in 2009, a year after the franchise went 2-14. Two years later in 2010, the Chiefs won their first division title since 2003 with a 10-6 record. Emery's first draft with the team produced Eric Berry, who was the team's first rookie Pro Bowl selection since Derrick Thomas in 1989.

From 2004-08, Emery served as the director of college scouting for the Atlanta Falcons. During that time, two of the three Falcons first round draft picks developed into Pro Bowlers: WR Roddy White (2005) and QB Matt Ryan (2008). He also worked as an Eastern regional scout for the Falcons leading up to the 2009 draft. The Falcons made two trips to the playoffs during that time including an appearance in the 2004 NFC Championship game.

This will be Emery's second stint with the Bears after working as an area scout for the franchise from 1998-2004, working in the Northeast (1998-99) and Southeast (1999-2004) regions. During that time the Bears drafted Pro Bowlers WR Marty Booker (third round of 1999), KR Jerry Azumah (fifth round of 1999), LB Brian Urlacher (first round of 2000), S Mike Brown (second round of 2000), CB Charles Tillman (second round of 2003), LB Lance Briggs (third round of 2003), DT Tommie Harris (first round of 2004) and CB Nathan Vasher (fourth round of 2004). Chicago won the NFC Central in 2001, its first division title since 1990 and first playoff appearance since 1994.

The fifth general manager in franchise history, joining George S. Halas, Jr. (1963-74), Jim Finks (1974-83), Jerome Vainisi (1983-87) and Jerry Angelo (2001-11), Emery will oversee the Bears football operations stressing a standard of expertise and excellence in every role. With a belief in developing a trust in giving a voice to all members of the football operations staff, Emery has promoted longtime staff members Chris Hanks (Head Athletic Trainer), Bobby Slater (Assistant Head Athletic Trainer/Director of Rehabilitation), Chris Ballard (Director of Pro Scouting), Marty Barrett (Director of College Scouting) and Jeff Shiver (Executive Scout/Assistant Director of College Scouting).

The Michigan native is a 31-year football veteran, starting his career serving as a student assistant at his alma mater, Wayne State, before joining Central Michigan as a graduate assistant (1981-82). He went on to become the offensive line/strength and conditioning coach at Western New Mexico for three seasons (1982-84) before becoming a defensive line coach at Georgetown College from 1984-85. Emery went on to serve as the defensive line and strength and conditioning coach at Saginaw Valley State from 1985-87 before joining Tennessee as the Volunteers assistant strength and conditioning coach from 1987-91. His tenure at Tennessee was highlighted by back-to-back Southeastern Conference Championships in 1989 and 1990. He made his last collegiate stop as the director of strength and conditioning services and as an Associate Professor at the U.S. Naval Academy (1991-98), where the Midshipmen won the Aloha Bowl in 1996. He was named the National Strength and Conditioning Association Conference Professional of the Year in 1996.

Emery and his wife, Beth, have a daughter, April.

LOVIE SMITH
HEAD COACH

Lovie Smith enters his ninth season as the head coach of the Chicago Bears, tied for the second longest tenured head coach with their current team in the NFC and tied for fourth longest in the NFL. Smith has a regular season coaching record of 71-57 (.555) and is 74-60 overall including the playoffs, leading the Bears to three division titles, two NFC Championship game appearances and the 2006 NFC crown giving the Bears their first Super Bowl appearance in 21 years.

One of just seven current head coaches to reach the 70-win plateau, Smith's 74 wins are third most in franchise history, trailing only Hall of Famers George Halas and Mike Ditka.

Smith set forth with three stated goals when he was hired as the 13th head coach in Chicago Bears history on January 15, 2004: end the decade of dominance by the Green Bay Packers over the Bears, capture the NFC North Division for Chicago and win the Super Bowl. The Bears have won eight of 17 contests against Green Bay during Smith's tenure, contributing to Chicago winning the division in 2005, 2006 and 2010.

Smith, the 2005 NFL Coach of the Year, has successfully laid Chicago's foundation for success in eight seasons on the job by establishing his cornerstone of aggressive defensive play.

Since taking over as head coach of the Bears, Smith has helped Chicago's defense to the third-best cumulative Aikman rating in the NFL. The Aikman ratings are based on five major categories: yards per play, adjusted points scored, turnovers, first downs and red zone performance.

Finishing tied for fifth in the NFL in takeaways in 2011 with 31, the Bears lead the league with 266 during Smith's tenure as head coach. The defense has returned 25 of those 266 takeaways for touchdowns, including six in 2011, and are 18-5 (.782) in such contests. Over the last eight seasons, the Bears have scored 26.9 percent of their points off opponent turnovers, fifth-highest in the NFL. Chicago is also tied for sixth in the NFL with 32 red-zone takeaways during Smith's tenure, including six in 2011 which was tied for second most in the league.

By keeping opponents out of the end zone during Smith's first eight seasons at the helm, Chicago ranks fourth in the league having allowed 19.4 points per game and third in the NFL with 274 total touchdowns allowed. Chicago gave up the fewest points in the NFC during the 2005 and 2006 seasons, pacing the entire NFL in Smith's second year with the organization. Under Smith's tutelage, the Bears lead the league by allowing the lowest opponent third-down conversion percentage (34.0%), the second lowest opponent red zone scoring efficiency (79.7%) and have forced the most opponent three-and-out drives (437).

Chicago has found consistency under the even-keeled hand of Smith's direction, fashioning a regular season home record of 40-24 (.625) from 2004-11 while going 31-33 (.484) on the road during that time. The Bears went 5-3 at Soldier Field during the 2011 regular season. It was the sixth time in Smith's eight seasons with the club that the Bears won five or more games at home in a single year. Chicago was 5-3 at home in 2009 and 2010, 6-2 in 2006 and 2008 and 7-1 in the Windy City during 2005. Chicago was 7-1 on the road in 2006, tied with 1985 and 1986 for the team's best single-season road record since the inception of the 16-game schedule. The Bears were 8-16 (.333) on the road in the three years prior to Smith's arrival. By leading Chicago to records of 11-5 in 2005 and 2010 and 13-3 in 2006, Smith has guided the Bears to three of their top eight seasons in terms of regular season victories during the era of the 16-game schedule.

Smith has returned Chicago to its preferred place as a power in the NFC North, fashioning a divisional record of 29-19 (.604) during his time with the Bears. Smith led Chicago to 5-1 intra-divisional records in each of the 2005, 2006 and 2010 campaigns, defeating all three opponents at least once in each season, a feat last accomplished by the Bears in 1991. Chicago began the 2006 season with three consecutive wins over divisional opponents for the first time in team history. The Bears also won its first 11 games against NFC opponents in 2006 en route to the second-best intra-conference mark in franchise history.

Lovie and his wife, MaryAnne, are the proud parents of: Mikal and Kristen Smith, Matthew and Kathleen Smith and Miles Smith.

Lovie is very active in the Chicagoland community as he and his wife have started the Lovie and MaryAnne Smith Foundation (LAMAS) which helps worthy young people further their education, with the simple motto, "We start it - You finish it".

The Smiths are Honorary chairs of the Ronald McDonald Capital Campaign to help build the largest Ronald McDonald House in the world, here in Chicago. Smith also purchases 10 tickets for every home game as part of the Bears ticket donation program and donates them to Misericordia Home, a care community for persons with mild to profound developmental disabilities. The Smiths have become volunteers and sponsors of various events at Misericordia Home, which is a lifetime commitment for MaryAnne. Lovie remains deeply committed to athletics and the larger community of his hometown Big Sandy, Texas.

ROD MARINELLI
DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR/
ASST. HEAD COACH

Rod Marinelli is entering his fourth season with Chicago and his third as defensive coordinator/assistant head coach after spending 2009 as the team's defensive line/assistant head coach.

In 2011, the Bears defense ranked tied for fifth in takeaways (31), fifth against the run (96.4 yards per game), eighth in opponent passer rating (79.3), tied for eighth in offensive touchdowns allowed (32), fourth in three-and-out drive percentage (27.1) and fourth in defensive Aikman ratings (77.4). The Monsters of the Midway were also tied for second in the NFL with six defensive return touchdowns and six red zone takeaways.

Four players from the Bears defense were named to the Pro Bowl following the 2011 season: LB Lance Briggs, DE Julius Peppers, CB Charles Tillman and LB Brian Urlacher; marking the second straight season at least three players from the Chicago's defense were selected to the Pro Bowl (Briggs, Peppers and Urlacher).

The Bears defensive line produced 30 sacks in 2011, seventh most in the NFL by a defensive front. Peppers tied for 11th in the NFL with 11 sacks, helping him reach the 100-career sack plateau. DT Henry Melton tied for third in the NFL among defensive tackles with a career-high seven sacks.

MIKE TICE
OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Mike Tice was promoted to offensive coordinator on January 6, 2012 after spending his first two seasons in Chicago (2010-11) as the Bears offensive line coach.

In 2011, Chicago's offensive line helped a Bears rushing attack produce 2,015 yards, just the second time they have eclipsed the 2,000-yard rushing mark in the last 21 seasons. The Bears 4.4 rushing average in 2011 was highest for the franchise since 1990.

Prior to his time with the Bears, the 15-year NFL coaching veteran spent the previous four seasons in Jacksonville (2006-09) as the Jaguars assistant head coach, overseeing the tight ends for the last three years. Before joining the Jaguars, Tice spent 14 seasons with the Minnesota Vikings as a player and coach. After playing tight end for three seasons (1992-93, '95), he worked as tight ends coach in 1996 and offensive line coach from 1997-2001, before being promoted to head coach.

DAVE TOUB
SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

Dave Toub enters his ninth season as Chicago's special teams coordinator after his unit finished third in the NFL (according to the Dallas Morning News ranking system), ranking in the top third of the league for the eighth straight season and in the top six in five of the last six seasons, including finishing No. 1 overall in 2006 and 2007.

Toub was hired by the Bears on January 24, 2004. In 2006 and 2007, the Bears became just the second team since the system was created in 1990 to finish with the No. 1 overall ranking in back-to-back seasons. He was voted as the Special Teams Coach of the Year by his NFL coaching peers after the 2006 season.

The 2011 season culminated with special teamer Corey Graham being named to his first career Pro Bowl under Toub's guidance. Announcing THE NEXT GENERATION in TPO roofing.

GAF scientists have developed
EverGuard Extreme® TPO... designed for solar and other high heat applications...

Solar panels (which are dark in color by nature) can create areas of high temperatures up to 190°F on adjacent roof surfaces. Other highly reflective architectural structures (such as mirrored glass) can act as solar magnifiers and concentrate sunlight onto nearby roof surfaces. This concentrated sunlight can be far more intense than ambient sunlight — leading to premature membrane failure.

4th PHASE

The first phase provides the offense. The second phase brings the defense. The third phase is truly "special." But the Fourth Phase makes it all matter.

Bears fans are the 4th Phase and they provide the inspiration for everything the organization does, on and off the field. They motivate and inspire. They strongly express their opinions. They bring the noise to the city on Bears Sundays, in the stadium, at home or in a packed bar, cheering along with millions of others. They are the lifeblood of the Chicago Bears.

When the opponent steps onto the field, they don't just face a team. They face a city. Wins are celebrated - losses, agonized. But always as one team.

NORTH CENTRAL COLLEGE CHAMPIONS

WE'VE GOT A GREAT RUNNING GAME, TOO...

Only one college in Chicagoland has won seven national championships in the last three years—North Central College.

But playing NCAA Division III athletics isn't just about national championships. It's about the love of the game and our commitment to scholar-athletes.

THIS IS WHERE WE TRULY EXCEL.

We view athletics as a training ground for developing great people.

HISTORICAL BIOGRAPHIES

GEORGE S. HALAS

February 2, 1895 – October 31, 1983

Leading the Chicago Bears for more than a half-century, George S. Halas, the team's founder and head coach for 40 years, was one of the most enduring personalities in sports history. Halas was active with the Bears starting in 1920 when he founded the team as the Decatur Staleys.

Halas was born and raised on Chicago's west side and prepped at Crane Tech High School before attending the University of Illinois. In Champaign, he earned a B.S. degree while lettering in football, basketball and baseball. After graduation in 1918, Halas joined the Navy for the first of two tours of duty. He was named Player of the Game in the 1919 Rose Bowl, playing end on the Great Lakes team that beat the Marines 17-0. A commander when he left active duty in 1946, Halas retired as a captain in the Naval Reserve. He was also awarded the Distinguished Citizens Award—the highest honor the Navy can bestow on a civilian.

After leaving the Navy, Halas played right field for the New York Yankees, but a hip injury shortened his baseball career. Halas went to work for a Decatur (IL) corn products firm owned by an enthusiastic sports fan, Mr. A.E. Staley, who sponsored a semi-pro baseball team, and later commissioned Halas to organize an independent football team.

PRO CAREER: As a player, Halas set an NFL record (which stood 49 years until 1972) when he took a Jim Thorpe fumble 98 yards for a TD in a 26-0 win over the Oorang Indians at Wrigley Field (11/4/23). He played end for the Bears from 1920-29 and was named to the NFL all-pro squad of the 1920s.

PRO COACHING CAREER: Three times Halas interrupted his coaching activities by his own volition. He first turned over the leadership to Ralph Jones from 1930 through 1932. In 1942 when he left for the Navy, Luke Johnsos and Heartley "Hunk" Anderson shared head coaching responsibilities until '45. John "Paddy" Driscoll coached in 1956-57. Coincidentally, in '33 and again in '46 when Halas resumed coaching, his Bears won world championships.

During the 1940s, his teams reached the height of their power with four straight Western Conference titles; three world championships; a fantastic four-season record (including pre-season games) of 62-7-1 (.899); scored 2,164 points and allowed just 842. The 1940 team, which defeated the Washington Redskins 73-0 for the World Championship, was voted the greatest professional team of all-time by the National Academy of Sports Editors in 1963.

Resuming coaching in 1958, Halas needed five years to develop another champion, when in 1963 the Bears won their eighth championship. The Sporting News, AP, and UPI named him Coach of the Year after the 1963 and 1965 seasons. Halas retired from coaching on May 27, 1968, with a career record of 324-151-31. His win total was the best in NFL history until Don Shula broke the mark in 1993. Halas is a charter member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

GEORGE S. HALAS, JR.

September 4, 1925 – December 16, 1979

George S. "Mugs" Halas was an integral part of the Bears before his untimely death in 1979. The son of pro football founder George S. Halas, Mugs spent 30 years in pro football. He joined the Bears' front office in 1950, was named treasurer in 1953, and became president of the club in 1963. In his first season as president, the Bears were NFL champions. Mugs was the second of just four presidents in the franchise's 87-year history. He succeeded his father, George S. Halas, and was followed by Michael McCaskey and current president Ted Phillips. His numerous contributions on a league-level included membership on the executive committee of the NFL Management Council.

Mugs learned football at a young age, serving as a ball boy while growing up. He earned a business degree from Loyola in 1949, before entering pro football on a full-time basis. Mugs is remembered for his love and devotion to the game.

EDWARD W. MCCASKEY

April 27, 1919 – April 8, 2003

Edward (Ed) W. McCaskey served as an executive with the Bears for 36 years, serving as Chairman Emeritus of the club from 1999 until his death in 2003. He was the team's second Chairman of the Board, succeeding team founder George Halas in 1983 following 17 years as the team's Vice President and Treasurer. Our National Parks but what they see is hardly welcoming.*

More than two miles of open space, monuments, and memorials welcome and inspire 25 million visitors to our nation's capital each year. But like many national parks, the National Mall in Washington, D.C., desperately needs our help. Although Congress has proposed some additional investment, "America's front yard" still needs $350 million in federal funding for maintenance, repairs, and preservation. Now is the time to act if we're going to preserve our national parks in time for their upcoming centennial, and ensure they can be enjoyed by our children and our grandchildren.

You can help with a simple letter. Visit NPCA.org/mall. Or call 1-800-NAT PARK.

BEARS OUTREACH

The Chicago Bears Football Club is dedicated to making a difference in our community. Our organization inspires positive change and enriches the lives of others through outreach programs, initiatives and partnerships. We are proud to give back to the community that has supported us since 1920.

The Chicago Bears implement and support numerous community programs, which focus primarily on the areas of education, youth fitness, health and wellness, youth football, volunteerism and military. These initiatives provide essential support to schools, youth organizations, charities and community groups throughout the Chicago area.

EDUCATION

The Chicago Bears support thousands of students each year through our annual education programs. This support is provided through internal initiatives that the Bears develop and make available to schools or through strategic partnerships with community and business partners. The Bears organization and our players devote significant time and resources to developing and supporting these programs with the goal of creating a positive effect and lasting impact for the schools and students who participate in them.

VOLUNTEERISM

Hands-on volunteerism is one of the most fulfilling and rewarding ways to give back to the community. The Chicago Bears understand the importance of finding the time to actively make a difference in the lives of people who are most in need. We implement and support a wide variety of programs that encourage Bears players, coaches, staff and fans to join together to help deserving individuals, children and families throughout Chicagoland.

MILITARY

The Chicago Bears are dedicated to supporting the men and women in the United States Military, and our ties date back to when our founder, George S. Halas, served in the U.S. Navy during both World War I and World War II. We are proud to continue this tradition through numerous programs and initiatives that provide support and show our sincere gratitude to those who serve our country and protect our freedom. We also honor the history and heritage of Soldier Field, which is a memorial to all the men and women who have served our country.

YOUTH FOOTBALL

The Chicago Bears have always taken an active role in offering and supporting a variety of youth football programs and opportunities throughout Chicagoland. We also host several events that bring youth football coaches and leaders together to share ideas and promote safety and awareness that will help build a healthy and strong foundation for youth football players. Through our camps, tackle and flag leagues and skill development clinics, our goal remains the same – to teach and encourage children to play the great game of football.

BEARS CAMPS

Chicago Bears Youth Football Camps are the official youth camps of the Chicago Bears. Children between the ages of 6-14 learn to run, throw, catch, defend, form block, form tackle and explode out of a stance with proper technique and improved speed. These week-long camps feature safe, non-contact football instruction and athletic development as well as instruction about good nutrition, proper hydration, and rest and recovery.

PLAY 60

NFL PLAY 60 is the National Football League's campaign to encourage kids to be active for 60 minutes a day in order to help reverse the trend of childhood obesity. The Chicago Bears support and promote the PLAY 60 message through a variety of fitness programs and initiatives, including Bears Football for Heart, Bears PLAY 60 Challenge, Bears/United Way Hometown Huddle, Fuel Up to PLAY 60 and NFL PLAY 60 Super School. We continuously encourage kids to "Get Up and Play, 60 Minutes a Day!"

BEARS CARE

Bears Care, the charitable beneficiary of the Chicago Bears, is committed to improving the quality of life for people in the Chicagoland community, especially disadvantaged children and their families, through targeted programs supporting education, youth athletics, and medical research and health awareness programs focusing on breast and ovarian cancer.

For the fifth year in a row, Bears Care will conduct the popular "Real Bears Fans Wear Pink" t-shirt campaign during the month of October. Fans are encouraged to wear the t-shirts on Monday, October 22 when the Bears and the NFL recognize National Breast Cancer Awareness Month in a nationally televised contest against the Detroit Lions! The success of the campaign has allowed Bears Care to distribute over $425,000 since the 2008 season to organizations in the Chicago area that provide care, assistance and support services to breast cancer patients and their families. For more info, please visit www.ChicagoBears.com/community/BearsCare.asp.

ANN & ROBERT H. LURIE CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL OF CHICAGO

The Chicago Bears are proud to support Ann & Robert H. Lurie Children's Hospital of Chicago with a $1 million donation for the hospital's Chicago Bears Gym. This gym will serve as a tremendous resource to the hospital's young patients as they participate in physical and occupational therapy and work to build their strength and dexterity. Representatives of the Bears organization will periodically visit the new Chicago Bears Gym to brighten the spirits of the children and offer encouragement as they work through their exercises.
